Results

If you scored between:

0 – 7

You are the sort of person who wants to live and being alive is the most important point for you. As a result, you will tend to go along with whoever is in control. In order to survive you will go as far as to tell on others, to safeguard you life and possessions.

8 – 13

Your natural instinct is to survive but you have ideas about how you would like to live. You are a realist and are prepared to work slowly for the things you want, however if the opportunity arises for you to bring about changes you want you are prepared to take risks.

14 – 15

You are one of life's adventurers and free spirits. You are not prepared to compromise your freedom and will fight no matter what the odds to regain your freedom.

Day to Day Slave Resistance

The enslaved African people did not accept their loss of freedom. This was clearly seen in the many revolts which happened. Some slave revolts were very dramatic but other slaves resisted in less dramatic ways.

1. Copy the table below into your books leaving space to write other things in it.

Different types of slave resistance

Active Resistance	Passive Resistance
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Poisoning the masters</li><li>2. Arson –setting fire to the slave owner’s house</li><li>3. Running away</li><li>4.
